

East Coast Easter Camp – Terms & Conditions

By registering for Youth Easter Camp, all participants and their parents/caregivers agree to the following Terms & Conditions.

Registration & Payments

- Registrations close on 25 March.
- All camp fees must be paid in full prior to camp. If you are having trouble with payment please get in touch - email sarah@peakvc.co.nz

Refunds & Ticket Transfers

- No refunds will be issued after March 25, including for late withdrawals, illness, or non-attendance.
- Camp tickets may be transferred to another eligible participant identified by the ticket holder prior to camp, subject to approval by the camp organisers.
- Any transferred participant must meet all camp requirements and provide all required registration information.

Health & Safety Expectations

- All participants are required to comply with the camp's Health & Safety rules, Code of Conduct, and all instructions given by camp leaders.
- If a participant breaches health and safety requirements, behaves in a way that puts themselves or others at risk, or fails to follow leader instructions, they may be removed from camp at the discretion of the organisers.
- In the event a participant is removed from camp:
 - Parents/caregivers will be required to collect the participant immediately, or arrange alternative transport.
 - All costs associated with early pickup or transport will be the responsibility of the parents/caregivers.

- No refund will be provided.

Group Registrations

- Any group larger than five (5) participants that is not affiliated with a local youth group must have:
 - An allocated leader aged 18 years or over, and
 - Approval from the camp organisers prior to registration.
- The allocated leader is responsible for the supervision, wellbeing, and behaviour of their group throughout the camp.

General

- The camp organisers reserve the right to:
 - Decline or cancel registrations at their discretion,
 - Make reasonable changes to the programme or activities if required for safety or operational reasons.
 - By completing registration, parents/caregivers confirm that all information provided is accurate and that they consent to their child's participation under these Terms & Conditions.
